

Aging & Disability Advisory Committee
1:00 pm, Thursday, January 12, 2023
Government Services Building
Multipurpose Rooms 2 & 3

1. Call to Order-Meting called to order at 1:00 PM.
In Person: Sandy Horn, Rita Vickers, Linda Yates, Carolyn Hillard, Mike Furgal, Joyce Hummel, Isaiah Carlson
Via Zoom: Cindy Klein, Belinda Curless
Members Absent: Dick Pratesi, Sharon Norton-Bauman, Roy Thomas
Others Present: Amber Russell, Morgan Kennison
2. Approval of October minutes – Motion to approve minutes made by Isaiah Carlson, seconded by Rita Vickers. All ayes. Minutes approved.
3. Introduction of the ADRC Office Associate – Karen Daly was unable to attend as she was filling in delivering meals. She will attend a future meeting.
4. 2023 Rate Schedule – Provided handout with the 2023 prices for programs including rep payee, transportation, nutrition and adult day center. No large changes from 2022 to 2023 and prices were increased coming into 2022.
5. Unit Updates
 - a. Staff update – APS positions are still vacant and duties are being fulfilled by current staff. Catrina Bennett started as the Monroe meal site manager started 12/12/22.
 - b. Transportation issues – Currently hearing struggles from the community regarding problems with the Monroe Cab service and the Medicaid transportation program Veyo/MTM. ADRC looking at what they can do within their current workload to help.
 - c. Term limits up in 2023 – Cindy Klein, Linda Yates and Sandy Horn’s term ends in April 2023. They have all completed their second 3-year term.
 - d. Changes in consumer dynamics – Current trends of calls where ADRC has difficulty to provide resources and services for are homeless individuals and financial concerns.
 - e. 2023 Prevention calendar – Provided handout of currently scheduled classes throughout 2023. More classes will be added as interest is expressed.
6. Other Business – AARP taxes start in February.
7. Next Meeting: February 9, 2023.

Motion to adjourn meeting by Sandy Horn, all ayes. Meeting adjourned at 1:47.