Why We are in a Vape Epidemic in Schools (and It Isn't Ending Anytime Soon)

We all know what happened in March of 2020 that closed schools and communities. Well, this also impacted the vape "world". Around June of 2020, even in my reduced travel, I continued conducting scans to see how the pandemic impacted stores carrying many of these products. One glaring void was vape pens on shelves. In multiple stores in the southwest, I had clerks say "they were out of vapes" and especially "popular vapes that can be used for drugs", including cannabis (or other drugs). I asked one clerk "Why do you think you are out?". He immediately responded, "I think people have nothing better to do"! Now, some of the vapes were used by adults but some were undoubtedly used by youth or young adults. As I explain in my Tall Cop classes, "Do I think everyone sat at home and got high?" Absolutely not! But do I think some of those who were getting high, drunk etc. increased their substance use? Yes.
